 - 4.2.8. All CONCACAF anti-match manipulation and anti-racism stipulations;
 - 4.2.9. All CONCACAF marketing and media requirements, as stipulated in the Commercial Regulations, including but not limited to, the Team Media Day in which individual and group photos and video will be taken of each team upon their arrival at the venue of their first match.
 - 4.2.10. FIFA Regulations in relation to the eligibility of players.
- 4.3. Member Associations shall take all necessary actions for their players and officials to be bound by and comply with all the aforementioned statutes, regulations, rules, codes, protocols, circulars, directives, decisions, stipulations and requirements.

4.4. All PMA's shall indemnify, defend and hold CONCACAF, the HMA, and all of their officers, directors, employees, representatives, agents, and all other auxiliary persons free and harmless against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, claims, actions, fines and expenses (including reasonable legal expenses) of whatsoever kind or nature resulting from, arising out of, or attributable to, any non-compliance with these Regulations by the PMA's, their Team Delegation Members, their affiliates and any third parties contracted to the PMA.

5. ENTRIES FOR THE "COMPETITION"

5.1. The National Women's team of all Member Associations affiliated to CONCACAF have the right to participate.

5.2. The competition will serve to qualify the Member Associations affiliated to CONCACAF for places in the FIFA Women's World Cup and shall start, except if circumstances do not permit, in the year proceeding the year of the FIFA tournament, and shall be completed in the year of the FIFA Tournament.

5.3. Notwithstanding the aforementioned, only Member Associations affiliated to FIFA that are eligible to compete in the FIFA Women's World Cup shall be permitted to advance from this competition.

5.4. On entering The Competition; the PMA and their Team Delegation Members automatically undertake to:

5.4.1. Participate and refer to their team as the best available team in all matches of The Competition in which their team is scheduled to take part;

5.4.2. Accept CONCACAF's right to use and/or CONCACAF's right to sub-license the right to use on a non-exclusive basis, in perpetuity and free of any charge, any of their records, names, photographs and images (including any still and moving representation thereof), which may appear or be generated in connection with the participation of the Team Delegation Members of all PMA in The Competition in accordance with the relevant terms of the CONCACAF Media and Marketing Regulations for The Competition (as applicable). To the extent that CONCACAF's right to use and/or CONCACAF's right to sub-license the right to use any of the records, names, photographs and images may fall in the ownership and/or control of a third party, the PMA's and their Team Delegation Members shall ensure that such third party waives, pledges and unconditionally assigns and/or transfers to CONCACAF with immediate effect, with full title guarantee in perpetuity and without any restriction, any such rights to ensure CONCACAF's unfettered use as set out above;

- 5.4.3. Observe the principles of fair play. Subject to any other decision by the CONCACAF Council, the Member Associations shall complete and send the official Team Participation Agreement to the CONCACAF General Secretariat in accordance with the deadline stipulated in the relevant CONCACAF circular. Only the Team Participating Agreements sent to the CONCACAF General Secretariat by the deadline set shall be valid and taken into consideration unless approved in writing by CONCACAF

6. LAWS OF THE GAME

- 6.1. All matches shall be played in accordance with the Laws of the Game in force at the time of The Competition and as laid down by the International Football Association Board. In the case of any discrepancy in the interpretation of the Laws of the Game, the English version shall be authoritative.
- 6.2. Each match shall last 90 minutes, comprising two periods of 45 minutes, with a half-time interval of 15 minutes.
- 6.3. If, in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations, extra time is to be played as the result of a draw at the end of normal playing time, it shall always consist of two periods of 15 minutes each, with an interval of five minutes at the end of normal playing time, but with no interval between the two periods of extra time.
- 6.4. If the score is still level after extra time, penalty kicks shall be taken to determine the winner in accordance with the procedure described in the IFAB Laws of the Game published by FIFA.

COMPETITION

7. WITHDRAWAL, UNPLAYED MATCHES AND ABANDONED MATCHES

- 7.1. After the participation agreement is signed, all PMA's have the obligation to play all of their matches until eliminated from The Competition.
- 7.2. Any PMA that withdraws before the CONCACAF Central American or Caribbean Qualifiers is liable to a fine of at least USD 10,000. Any PMA that withdraws after the start of the CONCACAF Central American or Caribbean Qualifiers is liable to a fine of at least USD 20,000.
- 7.3. Any PMA that withdraws after the conclusion of the CONCACAF Central American or Caribbean Qualifiers and up to 30 days prior to the start of the CONCACAF Championship is liable to a fine of at least USD 25,000. Any PMA that withdraws within 30 days before the start of the CONCACAF

Championship, or during the CONCACAF Championship itself, shall be fined at least USD 35,000.

- 7.4. Depending on the circumstances of the withdrawal, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee may impose sanctions in addition to those provided for in par. 7.2 and 7.3 above, including the expulsion of the Member Association concerned from subsequent CONCACAF competitions.
- 7.5. Any match which is not played or which is abandoned – except in cases of force majeure recognized by CONCACAF – may lead to the imposition of sanctions against the relevant Member Associations by the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee in accordance with the FIFA Disciplinary Code and upon its entry into force, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Code. In such cases, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee may also order that the match be replayed.
- 7.6. Any PMA that withdraws or whose behavior is liable for a match not being played or being abandoned may be ordered to reimburse CONCACAF, the opposing team, or any other PMA involved, any expenses incurred as a result of its behavior. In such cases, the Member Association concerned may also be ordered by CONCACAF to pay compensation for any damages incurred by CONCACAF or any other Member Association. The PMA in question will also forfeit any claim to financial remuneration from CONCACAF.
- 7.7. If a PMA withdraws or a match cannot be played or is abandoned as a result of force majeure, CONCACAF shall decide on the matter at its sole discretion and take whatever action is deemed necessary. If a match is not played or is abandoned as a result of force majeure, CONCACAF may in particular, order a replay. If the circumstances of withdrawal are sufficiently serious, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee may also take additional actions if necessary.
- 7.8. If a team does not report for a match, except in cases of force majeure, or refuses to continue to play, or leaves the pitch before the end of the match, the mentioned team shall be considered to have lost the match 3-0 and three points shall be awarded to its opponent. If in the case of an abandoned match, the winning team had already reached a higher score at the time the team in question left the field, then the higher score shall remain. The CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee will decide if a team that has withdrawn will be excluded from further participation in The Competition and the results of those matches shall be considered to have lost them by a result of 3-0 and three points shall be awarded to those opponents. The results of any matches played before by the team in question, those results will remain as the final result of the match.

- 7.9. Further to the above provision, in the case of a match being abandoned as a result of force majeure after it has already kicked off, the following principles will apply:
- a. The match shall recommence at the minute at which play was interrupted rather than being replayed in full and with the same score line;
 - b. The match shall recommence with the same players on the pitch and substitutes available as when the match was abandoned;
 - c. No additional substitutes may be added to the list of players on the team sheet;
 - d. The teams can make only the number of substitutions to which they were still entitled when the match was abandoned;
 - e. Players sent off during the abandoned match cannot be replaced;
 - f. Any sanctions imposed before the match was abandoned remain valid for the remainder of the match;
 - g. The match shall restart at the place where play was stopped when the match was abandoned (i.e. with a free kick, throw-in, goal kick, corner kick, penalty kick, etc.). If the match was abandoned while the ball was still in play, it shall restart with a dropped ball from the position of the ball when play was stopped.
 - h. The kick-off time, date (which shall be foreseen for the following day) and location shall be decided by CONCACAF.
 - i. Any matters requiring a further decision shall be handled by CONCACAF.

8. REPLACEMENTS

- 8.1. If any PMA withdraws or is excluded from The Competition, the CONCACAF Council shall decide whether to replace or not the Member Association in question with another Member Association.

9. ELIGIBILITY OF PLAYERS

- 9.1. Each PMA must ensure the following, when selecting its representative team, for The Competition:
- a. all players shall hold the nationality of its country and be subject to its jurisdiction;
 - b. all players shall be eligible for selection in accordance with the FIFA Statutes, the Regulations Governing the Application of the FIFA Statutes and other relevant FIFA rules and regulations.
 - c. Each participating Member Association shall select its national representative team from players who are nationals of its country and under its jurisdiction and who satisfy the age requirement of the relevant FIFA Women's World Cup and Articles 5 to 8 of the Regulations Governing the Application of the FIFA Statutes.
- 9.2. Protests regarding the eligibility of players shall be decided by the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee in accordance with the FIFA Disciplinary Code and upon its entry into force, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Code.
- 9.3. The Member Associations shall be responsible for fielding only eligible players. Failure to do so shall lead to the consequences stipulated in the FIFA Disciplinary Code and upon its entry into force the CONCACAF Disciplinary Code.
- 9.4. If CONCACAF believes a player's eligibility is in question, CONCACAF reserves the right to consider the said player ineligible to participate in any stage of The Competition until the player's eligibility status is confirmed by CONCACAF in accordance with the applicable regulations.

10. PLAYERS' LISTS

- 10.1. Each Member Association participating in CONCACAF Caribbean Qualifiers or CONCACAF Central American Qualifiers must provide the CONCACAF General Secretariat with a provisional list up to 35 players (4 must be goalkeepers) no later than 30 days prior to the start of the Caribbean Qualifiers or Central American Qualifiers, which CONCACAF will provide specifics by way of a circular. This list shall reflect each player's last name, first name, date of birth and passport number as specifically noted in their International Passport. In addition to any other information requested by CONCACAF.

- 10.2. Each PMA participating in the Caribbean Qualifiers or the Central American Qualifiers shall submit to the CONCACAF General Secretariat its final list of up to 20 players (2 must be goalkeepers), no later than 10 days prior to the opening match, which CONCACAF will provide specifics by a way of a circular. The Final List of Players must come from the previously submitted Provisional List which becomes binding 10 days prior to the opening match.
- 10.3. Each Member Association participating in CONCACAF Championship must provide the CONCACAF General Secretariat with a provisional list up to 35 players (4 must be goalkeepers) no later than 30 days prior to the start of the opening match, which CONCACAF will provide specifics by way of a circular. This list shall reflect each player's last name, first name, date of birth and passport number as specifically noted in their International Passport. In addition to any other information requested by CONCACAF.
- 10.4. Each PMA participating in the CONCACAF Championship shall submit to the CONCACAF General Secretariat its final list of up to 20 players (2 must be goalkeepers), no later than 10 days prior to the opening match, which CONCACAF will provide specifics by a way of a circular. The Final List of Players must come from the previously submitted Provisional List which becomes binding 10 days prior to the opening match.
- 10.5. A player listed on the final list may only be replaced during The Competition in the event of serious injury up until 24 hours before the kick-off of his team's first match and must come from the preliminary list. Such replacements must be approved in writing by CONCACAF or the Medical Committee upon receipt and acceptance of a written detailed medical assessment with doctor's stamp or valid letterhead in one of the four official CONCACAF languages. CONCACAF or the Medical Committee shall approve the request if the injury is sufficiently serious to prevent the player from taking part in The Competition. Upon approval, the association shall immediately nominate a replacement and inform the CONCACAF general secretariat accordingly. The replacement player must be assigned the shirt number of the injured player being replaced.
- 10.6. The only document considered to be valid proof of a player's identity and nationality shall be a passport that explicitly states the player's day, month and year of birth. Identity cards or other supporting official documents shall not be accepted as a valid means of identification. The PMA's shall present each player's valid national passport for the country of the PMA to the Match Coordinator on the day before the match. A player without a valid passport shall not be entitled to play.
- 10.6.1. CONCACAF reserves the right to request additional information from the player to confirm eligibility, such as birth certificate from the player, his parents or grandparents.

11. START LIST AND SUBSTITUTES ON THE BENCH

- 11.1. Up to 20 players may be entered on the start list (11 starters and 9 substitutes). Up to a maximum of three of the substitutes may take the place of the selected players at any time during the match. The start list shall be signed by the head coach.
- 11.2. The numbers on the players' shirts must correspond with the numbers indicated on the start list (numbers 1-20 only). All goalkeepers and the captain must be identified as such, number 1 shirt must be reserved for one of the goalkeepers.
- 11.3. Both teams must arrive to the stadium at latest 90 minutes prior to kick-off and return their start list to the Match Coordinator at the latest 90 minutes prior to kick-off. Both teams will receive a copy of the start list 75 minutes prior to kick off.
- 11.4. After the start lists have been completed, signed by the head coach and returned to the Match Coordinator and if the match has not yet kicked off, the following instructions apply:
- a) If any of the starting 11 players listed on the start list are not able to start the match for any reason, they may be replaced by any of the 9 substitutes. The replaced player(s) may no longer take part in the match, and the quota of substitute players shall be reduced accordingly. During the match, three players may still be substituted.
 - b) If any of the 9 substitutes listed on the start list are not able to be fielded for any reason, the player(s) concerned may not be replaced on the bench by an additional player, which means that the quota of substitutes shall be reduced accordingly. During the match, three players may still be substituted.
- 11.5. Although no longer eligible to play as a substitute, the injured or ill player who was removed from the start list may be seated on the substitutes' bench, and if so, would then also be eligible for doping control selection.
- 11.6. No more than 16 people (7 officials and 9 substitutes) shall be allowed to sit on the substitutes' bench. The names of these officials must be indicated on the "Officials on the Substitutes' Bench" form to be provided to the CONCACAF Match Coordinator. A suspended player or official will not be allowed in The Competitions area (i.e. locker room and/or tunnel), field of play and sit on the substitutes' bench.

- 11.7. The use of any electronic communication equipment and/or systems between and/or amongst players and/or technical staff is not permitted with the exception of communication equipment used for medical matters.
- 11.8. The Host Member Association (HMA) shall issue each of the official Team Delegation Members with an accreditation during The Competition. In addition, the HMA shall provide a certain number of Supplementary Accreditation Devices (SADs), where applicable, to each team in order to control and restrict access to the dressing rooms and field of play on matchdays. Further details will be given to the teams by means of a circular letter.
- 11.9. Injured players who are replaced up until 24 hours before the kick-off of their team's first match must return their accreditation to CONCACAF. Accordingly, players who have returned their accreditation shall no longer be considered members of the Official Team Delegation list.
- 11.10. The PMA's shall ensure that all accreditation data required by CONCACAF is submitted by the deadline stipulated by CONCACAF. Further details including SADs, accreditations, and other particular items will be outlined in the relevant CONCACAF circular letter.

12. FORMAT AND STRUCTURE OF THE COMPETITION

- 12.1. CONCACAF retains the right to determine the structure, format of play and match calendar for The Competition.
- 12.2. The CONCACAF Women's Caribbean Qualifiers will be played in a format which features five (5) groups among no more than twenty-three (23) teams (3 groups of 5 teams and 2 groups of 4 teams). The top team from each group will advance to a final group of five (5) teams and the top 3 teams from this final group shall advance to the CONCACAF Women's Championship. The PMAs that participate in the CONCACAF Women's Caribbean Qualifiers would include all eligible CONCACAF MAs from the Caribbean region. The decisions of the CONCACAF Council are final and not subject to appeal.
- 12.3. The matches in the groups shall be played in a round robin format, each team playing one match against each of the other teams in the same group, with three (3) points for a win, one (1) point for a draw, and none points for a defeat.

- 12.4. At the conclusion of each group in the CONCACAF Women's Caribbean Qualifiers, PMAs shall be ranked according to the following criteria:
- 12.4.1. greatest number of points obtained in all matches;
 - 12.4.2. Goal difference in all group matches;
 - 12.4.3. Greatest number of goals scored in all group matches.
- If two (2) or more teams are equal on the basis of the above criteria, their rankings shall be determined as follows:
- 12.4.4. greater number of points scored in matches between the tied teams;
 - 12.4.5. greater goal difference in matches between the tied teams (if more than two teams finish equal on points);
 - 12.4.6. Greater number of goals scored in matches among the tied teams (if more than two teams finish equal on points);
 - 12.4.7. The lowest number of points based on the number of yellow and red cards in all group matches is considered according to the following additions:
 - first yellow card: plus 1 point
 - second yellow card/indirect red card: plus 3 points
 - direct red card: plus 4 points
 - yellow card and direct red card: plus 5 points;
 - 12.4.8. Drawing of lots by CONCACAF
- 12.5. The CONCACAF Women's Central American Qualifiers will be played in a format which features one (1) group in among no more than four (4) teams. The top 2 teams from the group will advance to the CONCACAF Women's Championship. The PMAs that participate in the CONCACAF Women's Central American Qualifiers would include all eligible CONCACAF MAs from the Central American region. The decisions of the CONCACAF Council are final and not subject to appeal.
- 12.6. The matches in the groups shall be played in a round robin format, each team playing one match against each of the other teams in the same group, with three (3) points for a win, one (1) point for a draw, and none points for a defeat.

12.7. At the conclusion of each group in the CONCACAF Women's Central American Qualifiers, PMAs shall be ranked according to the following criteria:

12.7.1. greatest number of points obtained in all matches;

12.7.2. Goal difference in all group matches;

12.7.3. Greatest number of goals scored in all group matches.

If two (2) or more teams are equal on the basis of the above criteria, their rankings shall be determined as follows:

12.7.4. greater number of points scored in matches between the tied teams;

12.7.5. greater goal difference in matches between the tied teams (if more than two teams finish equal on points);

12.7.6. Greater number of goals scored in matches among the tied teams (if more than two teams finish equal on points);

12.7.7. The lowest number of points based on the number of yellow and red cards in all group matches is considered according to the following additions:

- | | |
|---|----------------|
| - first yellow card: | plus 1 point |
| - second yellow card/indirect red card: | plus 3 points |
| - direct red card: | plus 4 points |
| - yellow card and direct red card: | plus 5 points; |

12.7.8. Drawing of lots by CONCACAF

12.8. The CONCACAF Women's Championship will be played in a format which features two (2) groups among no more than eight (8) teams (4 teams per group). The PMAs that participate in the CONCACAF Women's Championship would include all eligible CONCACAF MAs. The decisions of the CONCACAF Council are final and not subject to appeal.

12.9. Only eligible Member Associations affiliated to FIFA can qualify for the FIFA Women's World Cup.

12.10. The matches in the groups shall be played in a round robin format, each team playing one match against each of the other teams in the same group, with three (3) points for a win, one (1) point for a draw, and none points for a defeat.

12.11. The top two teams from each group shall advance to the semi-final with the top team from each group playing the second-place team from the other group.

12.12. At the conclusion of each group in the CONCACAF Women's Championship, PMAs shall be ranked according to the following criteria:

12.12.1. greatest number of points obtained in all matches;

12.12.2. Goal difference in all group matches;

12.12.3. Greatest number of goals scored in all group matches.

If two (2) or more teams are equal on the basis of the above criteria, their rankings shall be determined as follows:

12.12.4. greater number of points scored in matches between the tied teams;

12.12.5. greater goal difference in matches between the tied teams (if more than two teams finish equal on points);

12.12.6. Greater number of goals scored in matches among the tied teams (if more than two teams finish equal on points);

12.12.7. The lowest number of points based on the number of yellow and red cards in all group matches is considered according to the following additions:

- | | | |
|---|---------------------------------------|----------------|
| - | first yellow card: | plus 1 point |
| - | second yellow card/indirect red card: | plus 3 points |
| - | direct red card: | plus 4 points |
| - | yellow card and direct red card: | plus 5 points; |

12.12.8. Drawing of lots by CONCACAF

12.13. Should any team that is ineligible to participate in FIFA competitions finish first or second in the Group Stage, such team shall be replaced by the next team with the highest point ranking in their group which is eligible to participate in FIFA competitions. The CONCACAF tie breaker procedure established in Article 12.12 will be used to rank replacement teams which are tied in points.

- 12.14. In the Semi-Final, if the score is tied at the end of regulation time, no extra time will be played. Instead the matches will go straight to kicks from the penalty mark per the Laws of the Game. In the Third Place and Final match, if the score is tied at the end of regulation time, extra time will be played. If the score is tied at the end of extra time the matches will go straight to kicks from the penalty mark per the Laws of the Game.

The dates of the matches shall be fixed by CONCACAF

- 12.15. The decisions of CONCACAF on the structure and format of The Competition are final. In the event of any withdrawals, CONCACAF may change the structure and format in accordance with the provisions.

13. VENUES, KICK-OFF TIMES AND TRAINING SESSIONS

- 13.1. The venues of the matches shall be submitted to CONCACAF by the host association concerned and the matches may only be played in stadiums that have been inspected and approved by CONCACAF.
- 13.2. The venue of the match shall have sufficient high-standard hotels to accommodate the home team, the visiting teams and CONCACAF delegation.
- 13.3. On the day before the first match of The Competition and weather permitting, the visiting team is entitled to have one training session, 60 minutes where the match is due to take place. In the event of severe adverse weather conditions, the CONCACAF Match Coordinator may cancel the training session. In this case, the teams shall be allowed to inspect the pitch wearing training shoes.
- 13.4. If there is any doubt regarding the condition of the pitch once the visiting association has already left to play the match, the referee shall decide whether the pitch is playable or not. If the referee declares the pitch unplayable, the procedure to be followed is described in art. 6.
- 13.5. The matches may be played in daylight or under floodlight. Matches played at night may be played only at venues where the floodlighting installations meet the minimum lighting requirements laid down by CONCACAF, i.e. that the whole pitch shall be evenly lit, with a recommended lighting level of at least 1,000 lux or as specified per tournament. An emergency power generator must also be available which, in the event of a power failure, guarantees at least two-thirds of the aforementioned intensity of light for the whole pitch. CONCACAF is entitled to grant exceptions.
- 13.6. All matches in The Competition must be identified, promoted and advertised matches in accordance with CONCACAF's relevant Commercial, Media and Marketing Regulations and qualifying competition branding guidelines.

- 13.7. On matchdays, the teams must be entitled to warm up on the pitch before the match, weather and pitch condition permitting. In principle, such warm-up will be 30 minutes in length. If the pitch is not in good condition or the warm-up would negatively affect the state of the pitch for the match, CONCACAF may limit the area on the field of play for the warm-up or shorten or cancel the warm-up session.

14. VENUES, DATES, ARRIVALS AT THE VENUES AND OFFICIAL TEAM HOTELS

- 14.1. CONCACAF retains the right to set the match dates and confirm the venues of all matches in The Competition.
- 14.2. The PMA shall arrange for their representative teams to arrive at the group venue in any stage of The Competition no later than 2 days before the first match of The Competition is due to be played. CONCACAF and the host Association shall be informed of the travel itinerary of the visiting Association no later than 10 days prior to each match at 18:00 EST and the visiting Associations shall have made provisions for obtaining the visas, if applicable.
- 14.3. During The Competition, only official team hotels under contract with CONCACAF or CONCACAF's designated service company shall be used for the teams' accommodation. CONCACAF will provide further details about accommodation policies, and in particular about the use of venue-specific team hotels, in a circular letter.

15. STADIUM INFRASTRUCTURE AND EQUIPMENT

- 15.1. Each Association organizing matches in The Competition must ensure that the stadiums and facilities in which the matches take place fulfill the requirements described in the Football Stadiums Technical Recommendations and Requirements publication and comply with the safety and security standards and other CONCACAF and FIFA regulations, guidelines and instructions for international matches. The fields of play, accessory equipment and facilities must be in optimum condition and comply with the Laws of the Game and all other relevant regulations (including the international dimensions of the field per FIFA Laws of the Game). Each stadium must be equipped with a minimum of 2 white goal posts and white goal nets with dark-colored support posts and a minimum of 2 spare goals, 2 spare nets and 4 spare corner flags located in close proximity to the field of play for contingency purposes.

- 15.2. Periodic safety checks for the benefit of spectators, players and officials must be carried out on the stadiums selected for matches in The Competition by the authorities responsible. If requested, the associations shall provide CONCACAF with a copy of the relevant safety certificate, which shall not be more than one year old.
- 15.3. Only stadiums that have been inspected and approved by CONCACAF may be selected for The Competition. Should a stadium no longer comply with CONCACAF standards, CONCACAF may reject the selection of the stadium concerned. Brand-new stadiums are to be inspected prior to use; the application for the final inspection and subsequent use of the facilities must be filed with the confederation at least six (6) months prior to the match concerned. Refurbished or renovated stadiums are to be inspected prior to use; the application for the final inspection and the subsequent use of the facilities shall be filed with CONCACAF at least four (4) months prior to the match concerned.
- 15.4. As a general rule, matches may only be played in all-seater stadiums. If only stadiums with both seating and standing areas are available, the standing space shall remain vacant. Regarding the spectator areas, the FIFA Stadium Safety and Security Regulations apply.
- 15.5. The field of play, accessory equipment and all facilities for each match of The Competition shall be in optimum condition and comply with the Laws of the Game and all other relevant regulations.
- 15.6. If a stadium has a retractable roof, in consultation with the Match Coordinator referee and the two teams' officials, must decide before the match whether the roof must be open or closed during the match. This decision must be announced at the match coordination meeting, although it may subsequently be modified prior to kick-off in the event of sudden and significant weather condition changes. If the match starts with the roof closed, it must remain closed for the entire match. If the match starts with the roof open and there is a serious deterioration in the weather conditions, the Match Coordinator and the referee have the authority to order its closure during the match, provided that the safety and security of all spectators, players and other stakeholders remain fully guaranteed by the host association. In such an event, the roof shall remain closed until the end of the match.
- 15.7. Matches may be played on natural or artificial surfaces. Where artificial surfaces are used, the surface must meet the requirements of the FIFA Quality Program for Football Turf or the International Artificial Turf Standard, unless special dispensation is given by CONCACAF.

- 15.8. Each stadium shall have sufficient space for warm-up during the match, ideally behind the goals. A maximum of six (6) players shall warm up at the same time (with a maximum of one (1) official without any balls). If there is not sufficient space behind the goals, each team shall warm up in the designated area beside their substitute bench. In this case, the maximum number of players will be determined by the Match Coordinator and the Referees and communicated in the Match Coordination Meeting (One (1) official per team will be allowed in the warm up area without any balls).
- 15.9. Clocks in the stadium showing the length of time played may run during the match, provided that they are stopped at the end of normal playing time in each half, i.e. after 45 and 90 minutes respectively. This stipulation shall also apply if extra time is played (i.e. after 15 minutes of each half). The half-time interval shall be 15 minutes.
- 15.10. At the end of the two periods of normal playing time (45 and 90 minutes), the referee must indicate to the fourth official, either orally or by gesturing with his hands, the number of minutes that he has decided to allow for time lost. This also applies to the two periods of 15 minutes of extra time.
- 15.11. Panels or electronic display boards, numbered on both sides for clarity, must be used to indicate the substitution of players and the number of minutes to be allowed for time lost.
- 15.12. The use of giant screens must be in compliance with the relevant CONCACAF instructions.
- 15.13. Smoking is not permitted in the technical area or in the vicinity of the field of play or within competition areas such as the dressing rooms.
- 15.14. The stadiums must be made available to CONCACAF for its exclusive use and must be free of any and all commercial activities and identifications not previously approved by CONCACAF, e.g. boards and signage other than those of CONCACAF's Commercial Affiliates, from at least five (5) days prior to the match and up to two (2) days after the match.

16. TEAMEQUIPMENT

- 16.1. The participating member associations shall comply with the FIFA Equipment Regulations in force. The display of political, religious or personal messages or slogans in any language or form by players and officials on their playing or team kits, equipment (including kit bags, beverage containers, medical bags, etc.) or body is prohibited. The similar display of commercial messages and slogans in any language or form by players and officials is not allowed for the duration of their time at any official activity organized by CONCACAF (including in the stadiums for official matches and official training sessions, as well as during official press conferences and mixed-zone activities).
- 16.2. Each team shall provide CONCACAF of a minimum of two different and contrasting colors (one predominately dark and one predominately light kit) for its official and reserve team kit (shirt, shorts, socks, all three goalkeeper's kits, gloves, caps, wristbands and headbands etc.). In addition, each team shall provide three contrasting colors for the goalkeepers. These three goalkeeper kits must be distinctly different and contrasting from each other as well as different and contrasting from the official and reserve team kits. The physical kits must be sent to CONCACAF 60 days prior to their first match of The Competition for CONCACAF approval. Only these colors may be worn at the matches. Any requests to change these kits must be submitted to CONCACAF for approval ten (10) days prior to the match in question.
- 16.3. Each team shall supply a set of goalkeeper shirts without names or numbers. These shirts will only be used in those special circumstances in which an outfield player must take the position of goalkeeper during a match. This extra set of goalkeeper shirts must be provided in the same three colors as the regular goalkeeper shirts.
- 16.4. CONCACAF strives to assign each team their full official or reserve kits. However, in some cases this may not be possible. In these situations, one team will be assigned a predominantly dark kit and the other team will be assigned a predominantly light kit. Only uniforms approved and designated by CONCACAF may be used for all matches. CONCACAF reserves the right to make changes to these designations based on the contrast of the uniforms, any changes will be notified by CONCACAF.
- 16.5. Each player shall wear a number between 1 and 20 (number 1 being reserved exclusively for one of the goalkeepers) in the front and back of his/her team shirt and on his/her playing shorts. The color of the numbers must contrast clearly with the main color of the shirts and shorts (light on dark or vice versa) and be legible from a distance for spectators in the stadium and television viewers in accordance with the FIFA equipment regulations. It is not compulsory for the name of the player to appear on his shirt during The Competition.

- 16.6. CONCACAF shall supply each team with 50 sleeve patches (tournament patches) per game in the CONCACAF Championship phase with the official competition logo, which shall be affixed on the right-hand sleeve of each shirt as stipulated by CONCACAF before The Competition. CONCACAF shall also issue the participating Member Associations with guidelines for the use of official terminology and graphics which also contain instructions for the use of the players' sleeve badges per the marketing regulations.
- 16.7. Each player shall wear the number allotted to her on the final list in accordance with the Equipment Regulations.
- 16.8. The player's last name or popular name (or abbreviation) shall be affixed above the number on the back of the shirt and shall be clearly legible in accordance with the FIFA Equipment Regulations. The name on the shirt must bear a strong resemblance to the player's popular name as indicated on CONCACAF's official list of players and in any other official CONCACAF documentation. In case of doubt, CONCACAF shall have the final decision regarding the name that appears on the shirt. The Players names are not mandatory.
- 16.9. The official and reserve team kits and all goalkeeper kits (including the goalkeeper shirts without names and numbers) shall be taken to every match.
- 16.10. Only warm-up bibs provided by CONCACAF may be used during official training sessions held at the stadium/venue and for the pre-match warm-up and the warm-up of substitute players during the match.

17. FOOTBALLS

- 17.1. CONCACAF must supply the footballs to be used in all matches during The Competition. Moreover, CONCACAF must provide the teams with a total of 20 match balls that will only be used for training purposes.
- 17.2. CONCACAF must supply for each match a minimum of 12 match balls in good conditions that meet FIFA Quality Mark standard (FIFA Quality PRO, FIFA Quality, International Match Standard)
- 17.3. The footballs shall be selected and supplied by CONCACAF.

18. FLAGS AND ANTHEMS

- 18.1. During The Competition, the CONCACAF flag, and the national flags of both PMA's shall be flown inside the stadium at every match. In addition, a ceremonial procession of flags onto the pitch will take place, followed by the entry of the teams as the CONCACAF anthem is being played, according to CONCACAF's pre-match protocol. The national anthems of the two PMA's (maximum 90 seconds each, no lyrics permitted) shall be played after the teams have lined up.

19. TICKETING

- 19.1. The HMA is responsible for all match ticketing during The Competition and shall manage the ticketing operations in a manner that meets all applicable security and safety standards. It shall set aside a minimum of 35 Category A complimentary tickets – any additional tickets to be fixed by mutual agreement and in writing – of complimentary and purchasable tickets for the visiting associations. At least five representatives from the visiting Associations shall be seated in the VIP tribune for their match. The visiting Association shall inform CONCACAF and the HMA in writing no later than 15 days before the match of the total number of tickets requested for the match. If there is failure to submit request before the deadline, the HMA will not be held responsible to grant additional request.
- 19.2. The HMA shall agree to provide to CONCACAF, upon request and free of charge, the amount of complimentary tickets and suites (where applicable) as stipulated in the Commercial Regulations or Host Responsibility Agreement ten business days prior any home match.
- 19.3. All ticket designs must be pre-approved by CONCACAF. The Association must work with CONCACAF to make sure their ticketing systems comply with this requirement and must inform CONCACAF if there are any potential issues as soon as these are identified.
- 19.4. At least 5% of the total stadium capacity must be available exclusively for visiting supporters in a secured, segregated area of the stadium. Field-side seating is NOT permitted and all non-permanently fixed seating must be approved by CONCACAF.
- 19.5. CONCACAF reserves the right to require terms and conditions to be included in the match tickets in addition to the terms and conditions by the HMA, during The Competition.

20. TROPHY, AWARDS AND MEDALS

- 20.1. The winner of the CONCACAF Championship will be presented with the Championship Trophy (hereinafter: The Trophy) The winning team will be provided with the Trophy during a ceremony immediately following the final whistle.
- 20.2. Twenty-seven (27) medals will be presented to each of the top teams in the CONCACAF Championship, i.e. gold medals to the winners, silver medals to the runners-up and bronze medals to the team ranked third (if applicable).
- 20.3. Medals will be presented to each of the officials who officiate at the play-off final.
- 20.4. A fair play contest will be held during CONCACAF Championship, for which CONCACAF will draw up special regulations. CONCACAF shall determine the ranking at the end of the Championship.
- 20.5. At the conclusion of the Championship, the following special awards will be presented:

Fair Play trophy

The Fair Play trophy will be presented to the team finishing first in the fair play contest. The applicable rules are in the fair play contest regulations.

Golden Boot

The Golden Boot will be awarded to the player who scored the most goals throughout the Championship. If two or more players score the same number of goals, the number of assists (as determined by CONCACAF) shall be decisive. If two or more players are still equal after taking into account the number of assists, the total minutes played in both competitions will be taken into account, with the player playing fewer minutes ranked first.

Golden Ball

The Golden Ball will be awarded to the best player throughout the Championship.

Golden Glove

The Golden Glove will be awarded to the best goalkeeper throughout the Championship (as determined by CONCACAF).

Best Young Player

The Young Player Award will be presented to the best young player throughout the championship (as determined by CONCACAF).

- 20.6. There are no official awards other than those listed above, unless otherwise decided by the CONCACAF.

21. REFEREEING

- 21.1. The referees, assistant referees and fourth officials (hereinafter referred to collectively as Match Officials) for The Competition shall be appointed for each match by the CONCACAF Referee Committee. They shall be neutral. The decisions of the CONCACAF Referee Committee are final and not subject to appeal.
- 21.2. The Match Officials shall receive their official refereeing kit and equipment from CONCACAF. They shall wear and use only this kit and equipment on match days.
- 21.3. Match Officials shall be given the opportunity to use training facilities.
- 21.4. If the referee is prevented from carrying out his duties, such referee shall be replaced by the fourth official. If one of the assistant referees is prevented from carrying out his duties, such assistant referee shall be replaced by the fourth official or by the reserve assistant referee (when appointed).
- 21.5. After each match, the referee shall complete and sign the official match report form. He/she shall hand it over to the Match Commissioner when applicable at the stadium/venue immediately after the match and to the Match Coordinator in The Championship. On the report form, the referee shall note all occurrences, such as misconduct of players leading to caution or expulsion, unsporting behavior by supporters and/or by officials or any other person acting on behalf of an Association at the match and any other incident happening before, during and after the match in as much detail as possible.

DISCIPLINARY MATTERS

22. Disciplinary Committee

- 22.1. The CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee is responsible for enforcing the Regulations. The CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee may apply the FIFA Disciplinary Code until the entry into force of the CONCACAF Disciplinary Code (when it will apply subsidiarity). In particular, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee may apply the sanctions described in the Regulations, the CONCACAF and FIFA Statutes and all other CONCACAF rules, circulars, guidelines and regulations as well as the FIFA Disciplinary Code (and, upon its enforcement, in the CONCACAF Disciplinary Code).

- 22.2. The players agree in particular to:
- 22.2.1. Respect the spirit of fair play, non-violence and the authority of the Match Officials;
 - 22.2.2. Behave accordingly;
 - 22.2.3. Refrain from doping as defined by the FIFA Anti-Doping Regulations as well as to accept all other relevant FIFA regulations, circulars and directive.
- 22.3. The PMA and their Team Delegation Members shall comply with CONCACAF and FIFA Statutes, the FIFA Disciplinary Code (until the entree into force of the CONCACAF Disciplinary Code) and the CONCACAF Code of Ethics, in particular in matters regarding the fight against discrimination, racism and match-fixing activities.
- 22.4. In cases of infringement of these and all applicable regulations or unsporting behavior on the part of the participating national teams, their players and/or officials, or in any kind of incident, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee shall be empowered to:
- 22.4.1. Admonish, sanction, fine, suspend and/or disqualify the national teams, their players and/or officials.
 - 22.4.2. Take action against any person(s) or PMA's which may violate these Regulations, the Laws of the Game or the rules of Fair Play.
 - 22.4.3. Prohibit violators from participating in a specific number of the CONCACAF-organized tournaments in which they might otherwise have participated.
- 22.5. The CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee may refer to the CONCACAF Council any matter relating to an infringement of these Regulations as it sees fit whether for further sanction or any other reason.
- 22.6. The CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee decisions may be based upon written record or by conducting a hearing.
- 22.6.1.1. When making a decision, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee may refer to the reports made by the referee, assistant referees, fourth official, match commissioners, referee Assessor, venue coordinator, technical delegate, security officer, diversity officer and/or any other CONCACAF staff or officials present. Additional reports include declarations from the parties and witnesses, material evidence, expert opinions, audio or video recordings. Such reports may be used as evidence but only in so far as the disciplinary aspects of the case being dealt with are concerned and shall not affect a referee's decision regarding facts connected with play.

- 22.6.1.2. At its discretion, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee may convene a personal hearing and will decide any procedures to be followed. Decisions of such hearings shall only be valid if at least three members of the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee are present.

The following decisions of the Disciplinary Committee shall not be subject to appeal:

- a. Cautions and censures imposed on Member Associations, players, officials and other persons.
 - b. Suspensions of up to two matches, or of up to two months, imposed on Member Associations, players, officials or any other persons.
 - c. Fines imposed on Member Associations (not exceeding $30,000 USD) or on players, officials or any other persons (not exceeding $10,000 USD).
- 22.7. All imposed economic penalties must be paid by the appropriate Member Association no later than sixty (60) days after notification thereof.
- 22.8. Cautions and suspensions:
- 22.8.1. Cautions received during any other competition are not carried over to The Competition.
 - 22.8.2. Cautions received in the Caribbean and Central American Qualifiers are not carried over to the Championship
 - 22.8.3. Pending match suspensions (in relation to the direct red card or an indirect red card) will be carried over to the Championship.
 - 22.8.4. Three (3) cautions received in different games during Caribbean and Central American Qualifiers shall result in automatic suspension for the next game in The Competition.

- 22.8.5. Two (2) cautions received in different games during the Championship shall result in automatic suspension for the next game in The Competition.
- 22.8.6. Red card (direct or indirect) suspensions shall be served regardless of the stage of The Competition.
- 22.8.7. Unserved suspensions outstanding at the end of a team's participation in The Competition will be carried over to the next official match of the player's National Team per the FIFA Disciplinary Code and, upon its entry into force, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Code. Including the first match(es) of the FIFA World Cup for the teams that qualify.
- 22.9. The appropriate Association under the provisions of its own Regulations shall punish any other offenses that may be committed during the course of the Competition by team officers, technicians or other personnel. For this purpose, the Disciplinary Committee shall refer the referee's report of the match in question to the appropriate Association. The Association will, in turn, report back to the Disciplinary Committee on the resolution of the matter and any disciplinary action taken.
- 22.10. If a game is suspended due to withdrawal, the team(s) refusing to complete the match shall be ineligible to participate in the next two editions of The Competition.
- 22.11. Any other infringement of these Regulations, whether by players, referees, officials, coaches or officers that are punishable by economic sanctions shall be reported to the CONCACAF General Secretariat for consideration by the CONCACAF Council.

23. APPEALS COMMITTEE

- 23.1. The CONCACAF Appeals Committee shall hear appeals eligible to be lodged against decisions taken by the Disciplinary Committee.
- 23.2. The CONCACAF Appeals Committee will apply the FIFA Disciplinary Code until the entree into force of the CONCACAF Disciplinary Code (when it will apply subsidiarily). In particular, the CONCACAF Appeals Committee will conduct any appeals procedures in accordance with the FIFA Disciplinary Code.

- 23.3. The CONCACAF Appeals Committee shall reach its decisions on the basis of the documents and other means of evidence contained in the Disciplinary Committee's file. The CONCACAF Appeals Committee may additionally, at its sole discretion, also consider additional evidence, including television and video recordings, which it considers relevant.
- 23.4. Decisions pronounced by the Appeals Committee are final and binding.

24. PROTESTS

- 24.1. For the purpose of these Regulations, protests are objections of any kind related to events or matters that have a direct effect on matches organized in The Competition, including but not limited to the state of and markings on the pitch, accessory match equipment, eligibility of players, stadium installations and footballs.
- 24.2. Unless otherwise stipulated in this article, protests shall be submitted in writing to the Match Coordinator or CONCACAF representative in the venue no later than two hours after the match in question and followed up within the next 24 hours with a full written report, including a copy of the original protest, to be sent in writing by scan and e-mail to the CONCACAF General Secretariat, otherwise they shall be disregarded. Such protests must be accompanied by a check in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500 USD) payable to CONCACAF.
- 24.3. Protests regarding the eligibility of players nominated for matches in The Competition shall be submitted in writing to the CONCACAF General Secretariat by scan and e-mail no later than two hours after the match in question. Such protests must be accompanied by a check in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500 USD) payable to CONCACAF, this check can be given to the Venue Coordinator or CONCACAF representative in venue.
- 24.4. Protests regarding the state of the pitch, its surroundings, markings or accessory items (e.g. goals, flag posts or footballs) shall be made in writing to the referee before the start of the match by the head of delegation of the team lodging the protest. If the pitch's playing surface becomes unplayable during a match, the captain of the protesting team shall immediately lodge a protest with the referee in the presence of the captain of the opposing team. The protests shall be confirmed in writing to the Match Coordinator or CONCACAF representative in the venue by the head of the team delegation no later than two hours after the match in question. Such protest must be accompanied by a check in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500 USD) payable to CONCACAF.

- 24.5. Protests against any incidents that occur during the course of a match shall be made to the referee by the team captain immediately after the disputed incident and before play has resumed, in the presence of the captain of the opposing team. The protest shall be confirmed in writing to the Match Coordinator or CONCACAF representative in the venue by the head of the team delegation no later than two hours after the match in question. Such protests must be accompanied by a check in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500 USD) payable to CONCACAF.
- 24.6. No protests may be made about the referee's decisions regarding facts connected with play. Such decisions are final and not subject to appeal.
- 24.7. Member Associations may not bring disputes with CONCACAF before a Court of Justice. They shall undertake to submit any disputes without reservation to the jurisdiction of the competent authority of CONCACAF and FIFA.
- 24.8. If an unfounded or irresponsible protest is lodged, CONCACAF may impose a fine.
- 24.9. The expenses, which arise from a protest, shall be charged by CONCACAF, either wholly or in part, to the losing party.
- 24.10. If any of the formal conditions of a protest as set out in these Regulations are not met, such protest shall be disregarded by the competent body. Once the final match of The Competition has ended, any protests described in this article or complaints about the sports procedure followed during The Competition shall be disregarded.
- 24.11. CONCACAF shall pass decisions on any protests lodged, subject to the exceptions stipulated in these Regulations, the CONCACAF or FIFA Statutes or any other CONCACAF or FIFA regulations.
- 24.12. Once the winning team of The Competition have been proclaimed, any protest or complaint about the sports procedure followed during The Competition shall be disregarded.

- 25.7. Any disputes arising from financial provisions shall be resolved amongst the Associations concerned but may be submitted to CONCACAF for a final decision to be taken.
- 25.8. Any expenses and costs incurred by a PMA other than those mentioned in these Regulations shall be borne by the PMA concerned.

26. MEDICAL/DOPING

- 26.1. In order to protect players' health as well as to prevent players from experiencing sudden cardiac death during matches at The Competition, each PMA shall ensure and confirm to CONCACAF that its players and officials undergo a pre-competition medical assessment (PCMA) prior to the start of The Competition. The PCMA will include a full medical assessment as well as an EKG to identify any cardiac abnormality. If the EKG is abnormal, and echocardiogram must be obtained and be normal before a player can be released to play. The medical assessment must be carried out between 270 days and 10 days prior to the start of each match during The Competition. CONCACAF will provide a PCMA form to all PMA's.
- 26.2. The duly licensed medical representative of each PMA (i.e. national team doctor) will be required to sign the PCMA declaration form certifying the accuracy of the results and confirming that the players and officials have passed the pre-competition medical assessment. The medical assessment form shall also include the signatures of the President and General Secretary of the PMA and shall be received by the CONCACAF General Secretariat at the latest ten (10) days prior to the start of The Competition.
- 26.3. Further to the above, each PMA is required to have a duly licensed medical professional (i.e., a doctor) as part of their official delegation. Such doctor must be fully integrated and familiar with all medical aspects of the delegation and must remain with the delegation throughout the entire official period of The Competition. The Match Officials (the Referees) will refer to such team doctor in all cases as required and necessary.
- 26.4. CONCACAF shall not be held liable for any injury sustained by any participating player or official. Equally, CONCACAF shall not be held liable for any incident (including death) linked to any injury or health problem(s) of any participating player or official.
- 26.5. As stated in these Regulations, each PMA shall be responsible throughout The Competition for providing health, travel and accident insurance cover for all the members of its delegation throughout The Competition. In addition, and in accordance with the FIFA Regulations on the Status and Transfer of Players the PMA with which any participating player is registered shall be responsible for player's insurance coverage against illness and accident during the entire period of the player's release.

- 26.6. Failure to comply with the aforementioned provision shall be sanctioned by the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee.
- 26.7. Regarding non-traumatic loss of consciousness during a game, the referee will assume sudden cardiac failure until proven otherwise. The hand signal is the right-hand fist against the chest. Such signal will indicate to the team doctor and the medical emergency team (stretcher team) to immediately institute comprehensive resuscitation that includes the use of a defibrillator (AED) and CPR. It is the responsibility of the HMA to ensure that there is a properly functioning AED immediately at hand and that there is an ambulance with an access and egress plan.
- 26.8. During the match if there is a traumatic head injury and concussion to a player, and the player remains on the field of play, the referee shall stop play for as much as three minutes as injury time. The hand signal is the right fist on the top of the head. Such signal will indicate to the team doctor to enter the field to assess and manage the player. At this time, a Sideline Concussion Assessment Test (SCAT) will be administered. At the end of the three minutes, at the discretion of the team doctor, the player may be ready to return to play or immobilized appropriately and transported off the field using the standard protocol.
- 26.9. Further to the above, in regard to traumatic head injury and concussion, full return to play after a previous concussion must include no signs or symptoms of the previous head injury as well as an acceptable Sideline Concussion Assessment Test (SCAT) assessment.
- 26.10. Doping is the use of certain substances or methods capable of artificially enhancing the physical and/or mental performance of a player, with a view to improving athletic and/or mental performance. If there is medical need as defined by the player's doctor, then a Therapeutic Use Exemption (TUE) application must be filed 21 days prior to competition for chronic conditions and as soon as possible for acute situations. The TUE approval system includes a designated administrative and functional committee that will review applications and certify the exemption as the committee defines.
- 26.11. Doping is strictly prohibited. The FIFA Anti-Doping Regulations, the FIFA Disciplinary Code and all other relevant FIFA as well as CONCACAF Regulations, circulars and directives shall apply to all CONCACAF competitions.

- 26.12. Every player may be subject to in-competition testing at the matches in which he competes and to out-of-competition testing at any time and place. Furthermore, reference is made to the FIFA Anti-Doping Control Regulations and the list of prohibited substances and methods per the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA).
- 26.13. If, in accordance with the FIFA Anti-Doping Control Regulations, a player tests positive for the use of banned substances, the player shall be immediately declared ineligible from further participation in The Competition and shall be subject to further sanctions from the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee.

27. COMMERCIAL RIGHTS

- 27.1. CONCACAF is the original owner of all of the rights emanating from The Competition as a collective whole and any other related events coming under its jurisdiction, without any restrictions as to content, time, place and law. These rights include, among others, all kinds of financial rights, audiovisual and radio recording, reproduction and broadcasting rights, multimedia rights, marketing and promotional rights and incorporeal rights (such as those pertaining to emblems) as well as rights arising under copyright law whether currently existing or created in the future subject to any provision as set forth in specific regulations.
- 27.2. CONCACAF will issue separate, Commercial, Media and Marketing Regulations for The Competition specifying these commercial and intellectual property rights. All CONCACAF members must comply with the Commercial Regulations for The Competition and must ensure that their members, officials, players, delegates and other affiliates also comply with these regulations.
- 27.3. For more details please refer to Commercialization Regulations.

28. MEDIA

- 28.1. - 28.6. Media Infrastructure: The host Association shall be responsible for providing the necessary technical infrastructure and services at each media activities and on match days, according to the requirements delineated in the Association Media Regulation. This includes a centrally located seating area in a secure space, separate from the public, and shall include desks, properly functioning cabled and/or WI-FI internet and power. The capacity shall meet the minimum capacity listed in the Association Media Regulations. Internet connections for the media shall be dedicated networks, free of charge and available from two hours prior to kick-off until two hours after the end of the match, and meet other specifics outlined in the Association Media Regulations. The Member Association is responsible for the proper provision of regulatory media infrastructure, including instances in which the stadium utilized is under the control of a third party.

- 28.7. Access Prohibitions: The team dressing rooms and other competitions areas, as delineated in the Association Media Regulations, shall be off limits to representatives of the media before, during and after the matches. No media representatives shall be allowed to go on to the field of play, field tunnels and dressing rooms during, before or after the match. This limitation included media who are part of and/or traveling with an Association. A limited number of photographers, and cameramen/production staff of the host broadcaster and TV Rights Holders – equipped with appropriate field-access accreditation – shall be allowed to work in the field of play areas listed in the Association Media Regulations.
- 28.8. General Communication Requirements: Associations shall make specific attempts in their communications with the public and the media to respect The Competition regulations and guidelines in terms of branding and communications. Additionally, Association officials, staff, players and other designees shall refrain from comments to the media which could be construed as negative regarding the organization or execution of The Competition, including but not limited to refereeing and logistical matters. Any intentional act in official media areas by players, coaches, and/or Association staff that could be considered disrespectful toward media members shall be strictly prohibited.
- 28.9. Technical Filming: Each Association shall be permitted to use one designated camera to make a technical copy of their match. The technical filming shall take place from a position pre-determined by CONCACAF. Technical filming must follow the rules and conform to the usage outlined in the Association Media Regulations. Any other match day video recording by the Associations, including the use of cellphones or internet-based transmission from inside the stadium, including but not limited to video for social media and/or streaming via social media, shall be strictly prohibited.
- 28.10. General Media Availability: Associations shall generally be required to make staff and players available to CONCACAF on an unlimited number of occasions during the duration of The Competition, with the purpose of gathering interviews and other information for general promotion of The Competition. The exact date(s) shall be established with due notice and anticipation through direct contact with the Association Media Officer, but shall ultimately be designated by CONCACAF.

- 28.11. Incorporation of Association Media Regulations: The Association Media Regulations, published and distributed separately, form an integral part of these Regulations. Upon notification to the participating Associations, CONCACAF may amend the Association Media Regulations at any time and at its own discretion. CONCACAF, at any time prior/during The Competition and at its own discretion, remains entitled to publish guidelines and circulars specifying these media regulations or parts hereof.
